Which program areas interest you? (check all that apply)

- Administration – Providing support in the office is vital to meet the day-to-day needs of Fair Food Matters. Duties may include: answering phones, filing, event planning, data entry, web updates, and maintenance.
- CAN-DO KITCHEN – Provides commercial kitchen space and business incubation services for food businesses and individuals while also increasing the availability of locally grown and produced in the community. This project also teaches food service job skills to under and unemployed community members.
- Eat Local, Kalamazoo! - A celebration and exploration of the Kalamazoo area food system.
- Future Chefs - This program gives teens the skills to make healthy meals from whole ingredients and pique their interest in the food service industry.
- Growing Matters Garden - Provides hands-on learning opportunities for local youth and the larger community at our urban gardens.
- Southwest Michigan Community Harvest Festival – This event, held annually in September, celebrates local food, local farming and sustainable living.
- Event Planning
- Tabling or Event Staffing
- Community Garden Projects
- Other - Do you have your own idea for a volunteer project? _____
